PREFACE.

THIS little book contains a brief notice of every current Law-book suitable for the use of Students for the Legal Profession or for University Law Degrees. Over two hundred books are dealt with.

Chapters are added on "How to become a Barrister" and "How to become a Solicitor"; and the latest Regulations of the Bar Council and The Law Society are given.

As few readers trouble to glance at the Preface, the explanatory matter is given in the Introduction.

The LL.B. (London) degree is also dealt with, and courses of reading for the Bar and Solicitor's Examinations are suggested.

The Student's Series.

"THE STUDENT'S SERIES, initiated by the enterprise of Messrs. Sweet & Maxwell, has taken a permanent place in legal literature, and is evidently meeting with the success it deserves. What is the secret of this popularity of the Student's Series? It is that the little books which compose it do not, as so many valuable legal works do, overburden the mind of the student; at first, starting with too many details, too many technicalities. They give a plain outline of the subject, sketched by the hand of an expert, and they leave the student to fill in as his reading and experience progress."—Legal Literature, December, 1905.
