Desiderata.

Oh, lost and unforgotten friend,
Whose presence change and chance deny ;
If angels turn your soft proud eye
To lines your cynic playmate penned,

Look on them, as you looked on me,
When both were young ; when, as we went Through crowds or forest ferns, you leant
On him who loved your staff to be ;

And slouch your lazy length again
On cushions fit for aching brow
(Yours always ached, you know), and now
As dainty languishing as then,
