THE WHATELY MEMORIAL PRIZE.

On the 13th of May, 1871, the Committee of the Whately Memorial Fund transferred to the Board of Trinity College, Dublin, a sum of £411, 7s. 1d. New Three per Cents., which remained after meeting the expenses connected with the erection of the monument to Archbishop Whately in St. Fatrick's Cathedral. The gift was accompanied by a statement, that it was the wish of the subscribers that the dividends on the stock should be allowed to accumulate, and that the sum accrued at the end of each period of five years should be awarded as a premium, to be called the Whately Prize: On the 21st of June, 1886, it was resolved by the Board;—
