TRADITIONS OF THE HOPI

BY

H. R. VOTH

NOTE.

The traditions of the Hopi here presented were collected in the vernacular and without an interpreter, by Mr. H. R. Voth, during the last two years, in connection with other investigations among the Hopi which he made for this institution. As in previous years, Mr. Stanley McCormick has very generously provided the means for this additional investigation, and it is a great pleasure to acknowledge the debt of gratitude under which he has again placed this department.

GEORGE A. DORSEY,

Curator, Dept. of Anthropology.

CHICAGO, January 1, 1905.
