THE following Lectures were composed and delivered without any view to their being committed to the press. The singular attention with which they were listened to at the time of delivery, and the numerous requests which have subsequently reached the Author for their publication, have induced him to let them appear in their present form. The circumstances under which they were delivered precluded a more extended investigation of the important subjects of which they treat, but the Author humbly trusts that even the imperfect survey which is here given may lead some persons to set a higher, and at the same time a more Scriptural, value upon the means of grace. He commends the work to the blessing of Almighty God, who, through the power of the Holy Spirit, can render the weakest instrumentality effectual to promote His glory though Jesus Christ our Lord!
