BY DAVID POTTER

One of the prettiest gift-books of the season

An Accidental Honeymoon

A sparkling and breezy gift romance of modern times, the scenes laid in Maryland. The plot is refreshingly novel and delightfully handled. The heroine is one of the "fetchingest" little persons in the realms of fiction. The dialogue of the story is remarkably good, and through it all runs a vein of delightful humor—though the author can be serious enough when he tries.

Eight Illustrations in Color by George W. Gage. Border Decorations on each page by Edw. Stratton Holloway. Large 12mo. Beautifully designed cloth, $1.35 net.

The Lady of the Spur

"Ferriss Dayton is a delightful novelty, belonging on one side to the odorous freedom of the pine woods and on the other to the haughty Morvans. The tale has a masterly swing and moves with briskness and ease."
—Philadelphia Press.

Third Edition. Colored Frontispiece by C. F. Underwood. 12mo. Cloth, $1.50.

IT WAS MORE NEARLY A HANDCUFF THAN A BRACELET. I LOCKED
IT AND DROPPED THE KEY INTO MY POCKET. Page 46
