"The Bible is the word of Life. I beg that you will read it and find this out for yourselves—read, not little snatches here and there, but long passages that will really be the road to the heart of it."—WOODROW WILSON.

"Every relationship to mankind of hate or scorn or neglect is full of vexation and torment. There is nothing to do with men, but to love them, to contemplate their virtues with admiration, their faults with pity and forbearance, and their injuries with forgiveness."—ANONYMOUS.

"And after all, when we come to think of it, error alone is dangerous; things are what they are; how can true ideas concerning them harm us, or false ones benefit us?"—PAUSAN.

"If any man is able to convince me, and show me that I do not think or act rightly I will gladly change; for I seek the truth, by which no man was ever injured. But he is injured who abides in his error and ignorance."—MARCUS AURELIUS.
