NOTE.

THE first journey of the Percy Family here comes to an end. The author proposes to issue another series, entitled "The Percy Family in the East," which will comprise volumes on Egypt, Palestine, Greece, and Turkey. The kind reception given to this series leads the author to believe that the other will be welcomed, and find its place in the education of the young.

The aim of the writer will be to furnish little thinkers with such an insight into the histories, customs, scenery, and condition of the countries travelled through, as will be a source of permanent interest and lasting benefit.

Boston, Nov. 29, 1860.
