TO HER GRACE,
THE
DUCHESS OF SUTHERLAND,
COUNTESS OF CROMARTIE,
THE OWNER OF THE STRATHPEPPER SPA,
THIS LITTLE WORK
IS RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED
BY THE AUTHOR.

PREFACE
TO THE
SECOND EDITION

As the author entertains the highest opinion of Strathpeffer as a Sulphur Spa, and it having been of late, frequently represented to him, that a want is felt in the shape of a book on the place, since the disposal, three years ago, of the First Edition of this work, he feels called upon to issue a Second Edition; and in so doing, he is glad to have the opportunity of removing, as far as this edition may enable him, two erroneous impressions which he finds have been made on the public mind, by writers on Spas, viz., the inaccessibility of Strathpeffer, and its imperfect arrangements—expressions true perhaps of the past, but certainly inapplicable now. At the same time, he would draw special attention to the fact, that the good to be derived from the Spa, is not confined more to the summer than to the winter months.

DURRANT HOUSE,
CHESTERFIELD, March, 1877.

PREFACE
TO THE
FIRST EDITION

THE present little work, intended specially for strangers visiting Strathpeffer, is an expansion of a pamphlet "On the Strathpeffer Spa," published for the medical profession some time ago, by the author. In this, he has attempted to render as intelligible as possible to the non-medical mind the subject of the Waters. In describing the Walks and Drives he has endeavoured to be concise; and in this portion of the work, he begs to acknowledge aid mainly from the excellent "Guide to the Highlands," of the Messrs. Anderson, of Inverness.

STRATHPEFFER SPA, July, 1869.
