THE DESIRABLE CITIZEN

THE Desirable Citizen studies the workings of his government in the community, in the State, and in the nation at large, and does his part in the election of proper men to office. He belongs to that party whose principles most nearly express his own views, but he does not hesitate to give his support to a better man on another ticket when no important issue is endangered by so doing. He loves his country with the knowledge that for him it is the best land on earth; but above all, and beyond all, he has an abiding faith in its integrity and in its future. As a neighbor he is charitable in his dealings and judgments, with a sympathy that gives aid to the needy and unfortunate without ostentation or hope of reward. In whatever land he calls home he represents the best product of its institutions and thought — a gentleman upright and unafraid.
