THE LIBERTY BELL

THE FAITHFUL DEAD.

BY ANNE WARREN WESTON.

Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister to them that shall be heirs of salvation ?

THE scorned and trampled Slave before thee lies,
And, as thou readest in his mournful face
How few his friends, how strong his enemies,
Do doubt and terror in thy heart find place?
Dost thou, unmindful of God's strengthening grace,
Promised to those who battle for the Right,
Dishonor Freedom, and the Truth debase,
By deeding those whose numbers make their might?
O, faint of heart! be cheerful—call to mind
The crowd of witnesses that round thee bend;
Their ministry was for this hour designed,
That thou might'st labor faithful to the end.
They who may aid thy work on earth no more,
Yet live, thy helpers, on the Eternal shore.

'It is said the evil spyrtes that ben in the regyon, doute moche when they here the Bells rongen: and this is the cause why the bells ben rongen, whan grete tempeste and outrages of wether happen, to the end that the fiends and wycked spyrtes should be abashed and flee.'

THE LIBERTY BELL.

BY JOHN BOWRING.

THE LIBERTY BELL is hung aloft,
On the transatlantic shore ;
And we hear its echoes, oft and oft,
Wafted the waters o'er :
And welcomed shall those echoes be !
Music of Liberty !
