

THE LEGISLATURE OF THE
PROVINCE OF VIRGINIA; ITS INTERNAL DEVELOPMENT,
VOL. XXVIII, NO. 2

Published @ 2017 Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd

ISBN 9780649182350

The legislature of the province of Virginia; its internal development, Vol. XXVIII, No. 2 by
Elmer I. Miller

Except for use in any review, the reproduction or utilisation of this work in whole or in part in any form by any electronic, mechanical or other means, now known or hereafter invented, including xerography, photocopying and recording, or in any information storage or retrieval system, is forbidden without the permission of the publisher, Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd, PO Box 1576 Collingwood, Victoria 3066 Australia.

All rights reserved.

Edited by Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd.
Cover @ 2017

This book is sold subject to the condition that it shall not, by way of trade or otherwise, be lent, re-sold, hired out, or otherwise circulated without the publisher's prior consent in any form or binding or cover other than that in which it is published and without a similar condition including this condition being imposed on the subsequent purchaser.

www.triestepublishing.com

ELMER I. MILLER

THE LEGISLATURE OF THE
PROVINCE OF VIRGINIA; ITS INTERNAL DEVELOPMENT,
VOL. XXVIII, NO. 2

Columbia University

FACULTY OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

Nicholas Murray Butler, LL.D., President. J. W. Burgess, LL.D., Professor of Political Science and Constitutional Law. Munroe Smith, LL.D., Professor of Roman Law and Comparative Jurisprudence. F. J. Goodnow, LL.D., Professor of Administrative Law and Municipal Science. E. R. A. Seligman, LL.D., Professor of Political Economy and Finance. H. L. Osgood, Ph.D., Professor of History. Wm. A. Dunning, LL.D., Professor of History and Political Philosophy. J. B. Moore, LL.D., Professor of International Law. F. H. Giddings, LL.D., Professor of Sociology. J. B. Clark, LL.D., Professor of Political Economy. J. H. Robinson, Ph.D., Professor of History. W. M. Sloane, LL.D., Professor of History. H. R. Seager, Ph.D., Professor of Political Economy. H. L. Moore, Ph.D., Professor of Political Economy. W. R. Shepherd, Ph.D., Adjunct Professor of History. J. T. Shotwell, Ph.D., Adjunct Professor of History. G. W. Botsford, Ph.D., Adjunct Professor of History. V. G. Simkhovitch, Ph.D., Adjunct Professor of Economic History. E. T. Devine, LL.D., Professor of Social Economy. Henry Johnson, Ph.D., Professor of History. S. McC. Lindsay, Ph.D., Professor of Social Legislation. C. A. Beard, Adjunct Professor of Politics. Rudolf Leonhard, J.U.D., Kaiser Wilhelm Professor of German History and Institutions, 1907-08. G. J. Bayles, Ph.D., Lecturer in Ecclesiology. E. E. Agger, Ph.D., Lecturer in Economics.

SCHEME OF INSTRUCTION

GROUP I. HISTORY AND POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY.

Subject A. Ancient and Oriental History, nine courses. Subject B. Medieval History, six courses. Subject C. Modern European History, eight courses. Subject D. American History, eleven courses. Subject E. Political Philosophy, three courses. Courses in church history given at the Union Seminary are open to the students of the School of Political Science.

GROUP II. PUBLIC LAW AND COMPARATIVE JURISPRUDENCE.

Subject A. Constitutional Law, four courses. Subject B. International Law four courses. Subject C. Administrative Law, seven courses. Subject D. Roman Law and Comparative Jurisprudence, seven courses. Courses in Law given in the Columbia Law School are open to the students of the School of Political Science.

GROUP III. ECONOMICS AND SOCIAL SCIENCE.

Subject A. Political Economy and Finance, twenty courses. Subject B. Sociology and Statistics, ten courses. Subject C. Social Economy, three courses. Courses in Economics and Social Economy given in the School of Philanthropy are open to students in the School of Political Science.

Most of the courses consist chiefly of lectures; a smaller number take the form of research under the direction of a professor. In each subject is held at least one seminar for the training of candidates for the higher degrees. The degrees of A.M. and Ph.D. are given to students who fulfil the requirements prescribed by the University Council. (For particulars, see Columbia University Bulletins of Information, Faculty of Political Science.) Any person not a candidate for a degree may attend any of the courses at any time by payment of a proportional fee. Three or four University fellowships of $650 each, the Schiff fellowship of $600, the Curtis fellowship of $600, the Garth fellowship in Political Economy of $650, and University scholarships of $150 each are awarded to applicants who give evidence of special fitness to pursue advanced studies. Several prizes of from $50 to $250 are awarded. The library contains over 400,000 volumes and students have access to other great collections in the city.

2

THE LEGISLATURE OF THE PROVINCE OF VIRGINIA

ITS INTERNAL DEVELOPMENT

STUDIES IN HISTORY, ECONOMICS AND PUBLIC LAW

EDITED BY THE FACULTY OF POLITICAL SCIENCE OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

Volume XXVIII]

[Number 2

THE LEGISLATURE OF THE PROVINCE OF VIRGINIA

Its Internal Development

BY

ELMER I. MILLER, Ph.D.

Professor of History and Political Science, State Normal School, Chico, Cal.

New York

THE COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY, AGENTS

LONDON: P. S. KING & SON

1907

COPYRIGHT, 1907

BY

ELMER I. MILLER

23/1/07

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	PAGE
INTRODUCTION	13
1. General difficulties of the study	13
2. Special difficulties of the study	13
3. General type of government before 1619	14
(1) No local self-government at first	14
(2) Law-making bodies	14
(3) Forms through which the government went	15
(a) Grants to Raleigh feudal in character	15
(b) Feudal estate supplanted by commercial company	15
(c) Character of charter of 1606, etc.	15
(d) Dale's Code	16
(e) Factions in the company make possible frequent changes	17

CHAPTER I

THE BEGINNING OF THE LEGISLATURE UNDER THE LONDON COMPANY

1. First proposal of a charter	19
2. Governor instructed to call assembly	19
3. Settlements grouped in four large corporations	20
4. Assembly of 1619	20
(1) List of members, place of meeting	20
(2) Speaker	20
(3) Qualifications of burgesses	21
(a) Warde's plantation	21
(b) Martin's plantation	22
(4) Committees appointed	22
(a) Of burgesses on the four books of privileges, orders and laws.	23
(b) Of burgesses, councilors and governor on the four objects of the meeting	23
(5) Reports of committees on privileges and orders	23
(6) Governor's instructions referred to committee	23
(7) Governor prorogues assembly	23
(8) Laws to be sent to each plantation and to England	24
(9) Message of assembly to the company	24

	PAGE
(10) Subject-matter and character of acts passed by first legislature	24
(a) Petitions to the company	24
(b) Character of the laws	25
(c) A tax levied to pay officers	25
(d) Assembly asks for power to annul orders of the company	25
(11) Estimate of assembly	25
(12) Action of company on assembly laws	26
5. Question of assembly in 1620	26
6. Ordinance of 1621	27
(1) Assembly provided for	27
(2) Powers of assembly	27
(3) Validity of acts of assembly	27
7. Governor Wyatt's commission	28
8. Assembly of 1621	28
9. Assembly of 1623-4	29
(1) Acts concerning religion	29
(2) Taxes and appropriations under control of the assembly	29
(3) How the inhabitants might be called for public service	29
(4) Burgesses might not be arrested for debt	29
(5) Monthly courts established	30
(6) Other acts of assembly	30
(7) John Pountis sent as first agent of assembly to England	30
(8) Acts not ratified by company	30
10. Attacks on the company	30
(1) Pamphlets of Johnson and Butler	30
(2) Special commission to inquire into conditions in Virginia	31
(3) Action of assembly in relation to commission	31
(a) Ignores commission and appeals to privy council	31
(b) Commission demands reply	31
(c) Assembly refuses to surrender charter and demands powers of commissioners	32
(d) Commissioner Pory secures copies of letter to privy council from Secretary Sharpless	32
(e) Sharpless punished	32
11. Success of the company	32
(1) Sandys' party gave self-government to Virginia	32
(2) Uncertainty of liberal control	32
(3) Change to royal government probably for the best	33
12. Anxiety as to king's attitude toward an assembly	33

CHAPTER II

THE HOUSE OF BURGESSES—APPORTIONMENT, LENGTH OF TERM, AND QUALIFICATIONS OF MEMBERS

1. Importance of House of Burgesses in this discussion	34
2. Purpose of next four chapters	34
3. Desirable to know attitude of English government after fall of company.	34
4. Special commission appointed.....	34
5. Two views held as to status of Virginia	35
6. Probable course of the commission.....	35
7. Attitude of Charles I.....	36
8. Constitution of 1625	36
9. Absence of legislature	36
10. Captain Harvey's propositions concerning a legislature	37
11. Was there a session of assembly before 1629.....	37
12. Possibility of other session before 1628	38
13. Prevalence of assemblies under Charles I.....	39
14. Assembly at first composed of governor, councilors, and burgesses....	39
15. Method of designation of two houses.....	40
16. Members	40
(1) Number and apportionment of members.....	40
(a) Before the organization of counties.....	40
(b) Governor and council directed to form counties.....	41
(c) Formation of counties.....	41
(d) Apportionment of burgesses to counties irregular.....	41
(e) Assembly of 1645 limited burgesses to four to each county ..	42
(f) Number reduced to two from each county, 1661	42
a. Exceptions	42
(g) Finally fixed at two from each county	44
(h) City or borough representation.....	44
(i) Parish representation	44
(2) Length of the term.....	46
(a) Uncertain	46
(b) Period of a year or less	46
(c) Period beyond a year	46
(d) Period of two years.....	47
(e) Assembly of restoration	48
(f) Period not greater than seven years.....	48
(3) Qualifications of members	49
(a) Slight reference to in early records	49
(b) Residence and denization	49
(c) Age	51
(d) Character	51
a. As to moral conduct	51