DECLARATION.

ALTHOUGH I have constantly taught under the authority and in presence of the Archbishops of Paris, and my doctrine has never been criticized or called in question by them ; although that same doctrine published by the press, has excited neither reproach nor discussion, yet, lest in treating so many theological questions some involuntary error may have escaped me, and this I must and do readily presume from my weakness, I declare that I submit my Conferences to the Catholic Church whose son I am, and in particular to the Holy Roman Church, the mother and mistress of all Churches, wherein resides the plenitude of authority founded on earth by our Lord Jesus Christ.

I also declare that I do not acknowledge the pretended reproductions of my Conferences which have been made by various periodicals, whatever be their form or name. I once more protest against the violation of literary rights whose result is to place under the name of a preacher discourses imperfectly reported amidst an immense auditory, and no less imperfectly corrected by the authors of such speculations. Should the doctrine contained in these publications be attacked, I decline the responsibility thereof as of a work which is not mine, and for which I can be held accountable only by a violation of all right and equity.

FR. HENRI-DOMINIQUE LACORDAIRE,

Prov. des Fr. Prêcheurs.
