PREFACE.

THIS SUPPLEMENT continues and brings down the Digest of the Laws of Jamaica in force to date, with the exception of those relating to the Police, who are on the eve of becoming merged in the Jamaica Constabulary Force.

The 6 Vic. c. 23, (Attorneys-at-Law), and 13 Vic. c. 9, (Masters in Chancery), are expired, but contain the Scales of Fees, by which the Officers of the Courts of Chancery, Ordinary, and Supreme Court are Governed in the Taxation of Costs. They could not, therefore, as respects the portions inserted, have been omitted.

The Chronological Table of Acts has been corrected and brought down to date.

The Appendix specifies the several Titles in the Digest, in which alterations have been effected by subsequent legislation.

Kingston, 1st January, 1868.
