CANDID QUARTERLY REVIEW OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS, POLITICAL, SCIENTIFIC, SOCIAL AND LITERARY. NO. 10, MAY 1916, PP. 225-441 Published @ 2017 Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd

ISBN 9780649365517

Candid Quarterly Review of Public Affairs, Political, Scientific, Social and Literary. No. 10, May 1916, pp. 225-441 by Thomas Gibson Bowles

Except for use in any review, the reproduction or utilisation of this work in whole or in part in any form by any electronic, mechanical or other means, now known or hereafter invented, including xerography, photocopying and recording, or in any information storage or retrieval system, is forbidden without the permission of the publisher, Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd, PO Box 1576 Collingwood, Victoria 3066 Australia.

All rights reserved.

Edited by Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd. Cover @ 2017

This book is sold subject to the condition that it shall not, by way of trade or otherwise, be lent, re-sold, hired out, or otherwise circulated without the publisher's prior consent in any form or binding or cover other than that in which it is published and without a similar condition including this condition being imposed on the subsequent purchaser.

www.triestepublishing.com

THOMAS GIBSON BOWLES

CANDID QUARTERLY REVIEW OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS, POLITICAL, SCIENTIFIC, SOCIAL AND LITERARY. NO. 10, MAY 1916, PP. 225-441

The Candid Quarterly Review

No. 10. May, 1916

PUBLISHER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

THE CANDID QUARTERLY REVIEW is published on the First Thursday in February, May, August and November.

The postage on a single number of The Candid Quar-TERLY REVIEW is fourpence to any part of the world.

A full-leather reading cover (in Cambridge blue calf embossed with silver), for keeping the current number of The Candid Quarterly Review, has been prepared and can be obtained at the price of 7s. 6d. post free either directly from the Publisher or through any Bookseller or Newsagent.

The Title-pages and Index for Vols. I to IV (consisting for Vol. I of No. 1, February, 1914, and No. 2, May, 1914; for Vol. II of No. 3, August, 1914, and No. 4, November, 1914; for Vol. III of No. 5, February, 1915, and No. 6, May, 1915; and for Vol. IV of No. 7, August, 1915, and No. 8, November, 1915) are now ready. A copy thereof will be sent free of charge to any subscriber or owner of these numbers who may desire it, on application direct to the Publisher, or through any Bookseller or Newsagent.

No Advertisements

are accepted for

The Candid Quarterly Review.

CANDID

Quarterly Review

of Public Affairs; Political, Scientific,

Social and Literary.

Conducted by Thomas Gibson Bowles.

CONTENTS.

CCI, I ZI, I C.
On Going to Press page	225
The War—So Far	229
St. Vincent on the Ministry of 1809	238
The Government	239
Bottles of Hay	251
The Guilty Man	260
Ratting and Whipping	261
Party Honours Debate	271
Conscience	285
The Conduct of the War at Sea	293
The Fleet and the Foreign Office	311
The "Zamora" Judgment	323
Land or Sea?	337
Raleigh on the Sea	344
Peace	345
Prussia and Napoleon	359
Blue-Bottle Parasites	364
Martial Law	365
A Free Parliament	376
Jones Forms Fours	377
What of the Budget	395
Roman Fiscality	412
Heaven and Earth	413
War Documents	421
The Englishman as Warrior	440
The Official Report of the House of Commons

Published by Frederick Henry Garratt at 26 Maiden Lane, London, W.C. PRICE HALF-A-CROWN.

Subscription 10s. per year, post paid to any part of the World.

THE CANDID QUARTERLY REVIEW is published on the first Thursday in February, May, August and November.

CONTENTS OF Nos. 6, 7, 8 & 9

No. 0. MAI, 1915.
Indecision	page 249
Gentlemen	259
The Vulgar and the Few	268
The War—So Far	269
Diplomacy	290
The Fleet Freed	291
British Liberty	334
The Law of Nations	335
Right Reason	352
More Martial Law	353
The Censoriad	369
The Chemist	373
War Documents. From the Fighting Line	385
Solomon on Drink	408
Finance and the War	409
Fiscality	428
After the War	429
War for a Window	142
The Conduct of the War at Sea	443
Walcheren and Wellington	460
The War by Land	461
No. 7. AUGUST, 1915.
The War—So Far	Page 477
The Conduct of the War at Sea	501
The War by Land	535
Unlawful Warfare	559
British Infantry	572
The Coalition	573
Place and Pay-and Pools	597
The Minister of Munitions	607
Martial Law Day by Day	623
The Supersession of the King's Courts	645
Judges	672
National Finance	673
Coke of Norfolk	695
War Documents. From the Fighting Line	719

Contents

No. 8. NOVEMBER, 1915.

The War—So Far	page 733
Contempt of the People	762
In the End Thereof	762
The Conduct of the War at Sea	769
Napoleon on English Sea Power	782
Back to the Sea	783
The Doctrine of the Sea	805
Seamanship	836
The Foreign Office and Sea Power	837
The War by Land	883
Our Definite Objects	905
Saving Europe	912
Our Muslims and the War	913
National Finance, 1915-16	931
False Fiscality	944
Public Finance	945
Statesmen Good and Bad	958
War Documents	956
No. 9. FEBRUARY, 1916.
On Going to Press	page I
The War-So Far	5
In a Way of Honour	36
The Conduct of the War at Sea	37
The Old and the Young	51
Ministers	57
Lord North's Places	70
Down with the Caucus	71
Monk's Free Parliament	78
Foreign Office Meddlings	79
The Foreign Office, the Enemy, and the Neutrals	85
Grey and Lichnowsky	102
Nelson	103
Martial Law Efflorescent	121
The Act of Settlement, Revised Version	139
Liberty and Property	154
Lord Lister	155
When is a German an Englishman?	169
Trade and the State	175
The War by Land	197
Division of Forces	208
War Documents	209

The Candid Quarterly Review

No. 10. May, 1916

ON GOING TO PRESS

[These pages are reserved for any last remarks which, in these changing and critical times, may be required by events that have occurred up to the day of going to press.]

"THERE are still material points of disagreement in "the Cabinet, and if these points are not settled by "agreement, the result must be the break-up of the Govern-"ment." So said Mr. Asquith on Tuesday, 18th April, when explaining why he had decided to postpone for another week the statement on recruiting promised for that day. Yet it immediately appeared that this Cabinet, so disagreed as to be on the point of breaking up, was completely agreed on one thing; for, said he, "the Cabinet is united in "believing that such an event would be a national disaster "of the most formidable kind."

Let us grasp the full meaning of this remarkable sentence. It is one of those that reveal the secret of a man's whole conduct without his realising it in the least. These few words flash up the whole truth. Here is a man who brought us up to the war without having made due preparation for it; who is before all men responsible for the Dardanelles tragedy and for all else in the conduct of the war; who denied any shortage of munitions while our men were perishing by