By the Rev. W. ROBERTSON
NICOLL, M.A., LL.D., Editor of
"The Expositor," "The Expositor's Bible"
"The Expositor's Greek Testament," etc.

"There is in the Bible above all the personal Christ,
a Personality which men could not have imagined,
a Personality which must be historical, and which must be divine."—PROFESSOR ROBERTSON SMITH

PREFATORY NOTE

THIS little book is made up out of articles which have already been published in the British Weekly. They have been carefully revised, and some notes and references have been added. But I have endeavoured to make the book intelligible to the plain man. The questions discussed cannot be left to experts. They concern not merely the health, but the existence of the Church.

I have to acknowledge gratefully the kind help given by the Rev. David Smith, M.A., of Tulliallan, and also the helpful suggestions of the Bishop of Durham, and Mr. George Augustus Simcox, Fellow of Queen's College, Oxford.

HAMPSTEAD,
November, 1901.
