PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION.

I AM informed that a re-issue of this small volume is desired. Since the first edition, the question of Church and State has been broadly raised for Wales and Scotland. Behind these too there are aspects of that question causing difficulty in England, in Italy, in Russia, and in some other countries. Yet all these are mere fragments of one problem which the Christian world has for two thousand years been working out, on the lines and with the results which the following pages attempt to summarise.
