POEMS

BY

VIOLET FANE.

To sit alone
And think for comfort how, that very night,
Affanced lovers, leaning face to face,
With sweet half listenings for each other's breath,
Are reading haply from a page of ours,
To pause with a thrill (as if their cheeks had touched)
When such a stanza, level to their mood,
Seems floating their own thought out—' So I feel
For thee—and I for thee'.
