OFFICIAL CALL

Mining is essentially a National Business. While composed of many units, it is necessarily a big business. Co-operation of those units is essential to the highest efficiency. Safety, Efficiency and Conservation can only be accomplished through the combined efforts of operator, miner and consumer. The careful deliberation of practical mining men is essential in the solution of the growing problems of the industry. An opportunity for discussion and the outlining of plans through which better conditions may be brought about, will be given

At the
EIGHTEENTH ANNUAL SESSION
Of the
AMERICAN MINING CONGRESS

Which is Hereby Called to Meet at the Exposition Memorial Auditorium

San Francisco, California

September 20, 21, 22
1915

REPRESENTATION

The Convention will be composed of the active and associate members of The American Mining Congress and members of affiliated organizations, specially invited guests and duly accredited delegates appointed under the authority hereby extended for the appointment of delegates, as follows:

The President of the United States may appoint ten delegates at large;

The Chief Executives of foreign nations may appoint ten delegates; Governors of states and territories may each appoint ten delegates; Mayors of cities and towns, two delegates each and one additional delegate for each 100,000 of population;

Boards of County Supervisors, Boards of Trade, Chambers of Commerce, Mining Bureaus and Exchanges, Mining Organizations, Scientific Societies, Engineers' Associations, and State Mining Schools may appoint two delegates each.

The early appointment of delegates is specially urged and that the name and address of each delegate appointed shall be sent the Secretary at the earliest time possible. Delegates will be advised of the subjects to be presented in order that proper preparation may be made for discussion.

THE AMERICAN MINING CONGRESS,

By order of the Executive Committee,

CARL SCHOLZ, President.
