TO MY HUSBAND
AND MY FRIEND, GOLDFINCH BATE

I would wish to express my sincere thanks to Mrs Seaton Tiedeman, the Secretary of the Divorce Law Reform Union, for the kind and generous assistance she afforded me; also to record my indebtedness to all those writers whose works have helped me, and, in particular, to S. B. Kitchen, B.A., LL.B., whose valuable book, "A History of Divorce," provides a store of information most admirably dealt with.
