THE STATESMEN OF AMERICA IN 1846

Published @ 2017 Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd

ISBN 9780649711710

The Statesmen of America in 1846 by Sarah Mytton Maury

Except for use in any review, the reproduction or utilisation of this work in whole or in part in any form by any electronic, mechanical or other means, now known or hereafter invented, including xerography, photocopying and recording, or in any information storage or retrieval system, is forbidden without the permission of the publisher, Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd, PO Box 1576 Collingwood, Victoria 3066 Australia.

All rights reserved.

Edited by Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd. Cover @ 2017

This book is sold subject to the condition that it shall not, by way of trade or otherwise, be lent, re-sold, hired out, or otherwise circulated without the publisher's prior consent in any form or binding or cover other than that in which it is published and without a similar condition including this condition being imposed on the subsequent purchaser.

www.triestepublishing.com

SARAH MYTTON MAURY

THE STATESMEN OF AMERICA IN 1846

STATESMEN OF AMERICA

IN 1846.

BY

SARAH MYTTON MAURY.

" Veritas et Justitia hos reddont Honores."

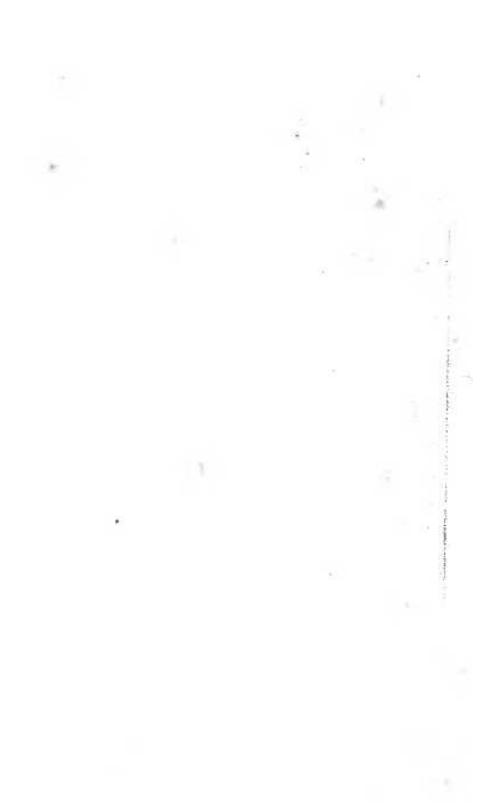

PHILADELPHIA:
CAREY AND HART.
1847.

THE NEW YORK
PUBLIC LIBRARY
IG2530
ASTOR, LEVOX AND TILDER FOUNDATIONS, 1899.

c. SHERMAN, PRINTER, 19 St. James Street.

CONTENTS.

												PAGE.
The President and People of	the	Unit	ed 8	Stati	CS.				-		ુ	17
James Buchanan		3.5		•		80		φ		-		21
William Henry Seward	84				•		$\frac{1}{2}$		\equiv		4	31
William II, Haywood		-				*))				2		46
Hugh White	3.5				1 (0)		86		\times		3	53
John Y. Mason -		120		÷		200		\approx		:(1)		54
Abbott Lawrence -	35		-		200				(2)		æ	55
Thomas H. Benton -				-0						210		59
Samuel D. Hubbard -			e.		300		20		0.0		107	66
Martin Van Buren .						50						67
Robert C. Winthrop -	83		į.		23		ु		-3		2	79
Roger B. Tancy -		-				•				G.		67
John M'Lean	33				41		*				Ş	89
Daniel Webster and Rufus C	Choate	é				-		(a)		7.		98
Edward A. Hannegan -	-				333				36			117
John Quincy Adams				*:1								125
Albert Gallatin	83				90		(•)				33	136
Oregon and Canada, Remar	ks on			90		(*)		200		1.8		150
Charles Jared Ingersoll -	-				20		+ 1		: +:		æ	155
Edmund P. Gaines .		727		20		2		120		9.5		166
Matthew Fontaine Maury											÷	167
John Caldwell Calhoun		26						13		92		168
Henry Clay	12				4				$\mathcal{G}_{\mathcal{A}}$		8	203
Right Rev. John Hughes, C	athol	ic Bi	aho	p of	N	W	Yo;	k		100		003
Note on the Corps Diploma:	ique	a: W	ash	ingt	on						4	251
Essay on Free Trade, by the						×		2		98		252
The Catholic Church in Ore	egon		•		*10		-					257
Notes on the Mexican War												occ

TO THE HONOCRABLE

JAMES BUCHANAN,

SECRETARY OF STATE,

AT WASHINGTON.

My dear Sik,

At length 1 have the pleasure of presenting to your acceptance the "Statesmen of America in 1846." They will be succeeded by the "Opinions of an Englishwoman on America."*—Both of these works are indebted to your suggestion for their origin; and for the privilege of being inscribed with a name so distinguished as that of James Buchanan.

I have been anxious that the "Statesmen" should appear in Washington during the Session of Congress in 1847; presuming that most of my friends will be there again assembled. Should the Portraits be pronounced good likenesses, I shall be proud and happy; and even should they be found but faint in their resemblance, the attempt itself to delineate them will prove to the valued originals how deeply engraven on my memory are their names and features.

Will be reprinted by Carey and Hart uniform with the present volume.

The Journals announce a change in the political aspect of the country. It appears to me, however, that the Whig elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and especially in the Dictator State of New York, have arisen out of questions purely local, and affecting those sections alone. The actual true majorities in the United States will ever be vested in the Democratic ranks; naturally and invariably the dominant party in a Republic. It must be so;—though incidental circumstances would sometimes cause it to appear otherwise. I anticipate that the Americans will make a Democratic President in 1848; and, perhaps, a moderate or a Democratic Whig in 1852.

But I will cease to interrupt you with my English fireside lucubrations; though I indulge in them frequently for the sake of recalling my pleasant residence at Washington, in the midst of its frank and social circles. I trust to be remembered, and sometimes to be wished for by many of the actors in those brilliant scenes, which their kindness rendered to me so fascinating,

Will you, my dear Mr. BCCHANAN, present to our mutual friends, in the name of my husband, his most grateful acknowledgments for the hospitality and protection accorded to his Wife and Son by his faithful and generous countrymen;—and in my name, will you add, that I anticipate with delight the time when I shall return again to be among them. England is my birthplace, and as such is dear; she is the nursery of my earliest and tenderest affections, and as such her name is sweet:—

"Here my Father's house was reared; Here my Mother's voice was heard; Here my infant children played Beneath the oak's wide-spreading shade."

But, in all the essential advantages of life, America is her superior; and these I wish to seek for my Sons' and for my Daughters' sake.

You have promised me a welcome; and well you know the value of the boon you offer. The Americans have already given me a place in their homes and in their hearts and soon I shall come to claim it;—until then and always, I remain,

My dear Sir,
Your faithful Servant,
And affectionate Friend,
SARAH MYTTON MAURY.

LIVERPOOL, 31st DECEMBER, 1846.

Anniversary of the Day I arrived in Washington.