RHYMES AND RECITATIONS

BY

HAMILTON AÏDÉ

SECOND EDITION

LONDON DAVID BOGUE, 3, ST. MARTIN'S PLACE TRAFALGAR SQUARE, W.C. 1882

M OST of the verses collected in this volume have been printed at various times, and in sundry ways, during the last twenty years. About one-third of the songs are new. The rest have been published with music; and, of these, many have become popular.

This is my excuse for gathering together lyrics, the chief merit of which is that they are more singable than perhaps better poetry sometimes is; and that they have been loved, and sung by lips that will sing no more.

Of the recitations, it is enough to say that they are not meant to be read in silence. They were written with a special intention, and demand the interpretation of the human voice. Most of the other poems appeared many years ago in a volume which is now out of print.
