Entered according to Act of the Parliament of Canada, in the year One thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, by JAMES OUELLET HAMILTON, in the office of the Minister of Agriculture.

The photograph of Champlain's astrolabe is from the original, through the courtesy of R. S. Cassels, Esq. The other illustrations are from original pencil sketches made by Mrs. Jameson during her "Summer Rambles" of 1837, in possession of Mr. Robert Bain, who has kindly permitted their reproduction in this volume.

*"And this our life, exempt from public haunt,
Finds tongues in trees, books in the running brooks,
Sermons in stones, and good in everything."*
