Dear Father O'Gorman,

I have read over your compilation on the Sanctuary and Station of Lough Beg, and have found in it nothing adverse to faith or morals. Its perusal, indeed, has given me considerable satisfaction; and I conceive that the book may tend to the edification of the faithful and to the popularity of that grand old Shrine which has been the home of so many Saints, the haven of so many Sinners, and which we regard as one of the proudest glories of this ancient diocese. One cannot but admire your industry in exploring the records and monuments of past ages, connected with St Petrus's Purgatory. The wonder is how, amid the duties of a laborious ministry, you could find time to collect so many facts and documents bearing on the subject, and give them to the public in a form which, though not absolutely free from blemishes of style.
