In Memoriam

This memorial booklet is published by authority of the legislature of Michigan, under a concurrent resolution originating in the Senate, which resolution was unanimously concurred in by the House of Representatives.

The proceedings of the joint convention, wherein the memorial exercises were held, and which follow, are taken from the official journals of the House and Senate, the addresses delivered on the occasion being followed by a sketch of Senator McMillan's life, written by Mr. Charles Moore, for many years Senator McMillan's private secretary.

STAMFORD LIBRARY

The following Concurrent Resolution was offered by Mr. Combs:

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That a committee of three from the House be appointed by the Speaker to act with a like committee of the Senate in making arrangements for a joint session of the two Houses in memory of the late James McMillan, United States Senator, who died August 10, 1902.

The Speaker announced that the resolution would lie over one day under the rules.

House Journal, January 27.

On the following day, the resolution was unanimously adopted.
