Green Room Gossip

By ARCHIBALD HADDON

Crown 8vo. Cloth. 6s. 0d. net.

A notable book on the contemporary theatre by the well-known dramatic critic of "The Daily Express." All the principal happenings of the London Stage during the last few years are discussed with astonishing freedom of expression. One of its most attractive features is a considerable number of vivacious pen-sketches of leading actors and actresses in their dressing-rooms. Another section "When the Censor Nods" deals with certain notorious productions which startled London playgoers. The book being indexed is a useful work of reference.
