TO
THE RIGHT HONOURABLE
THE EARL OF MUNSTER, F.R.S.

CORRESPONDING MEMBER OF THE INSTITUTE OF FRANCE,

¶ ¶ ¶

MY DEAR LORD,

THE warm interest which your Lordship has shown in promoting the advancement of literature, by your first establishing, and subsequently fostering with the greatest care, a Society for translating and publishing inedited Oriental MSS., which has made your name known throughout this country and the rest of the civilized world, leads me, in addition to the many obliging attentions I have received from yourself during an intercourse of several years, to place under the protection of your Lordship's name the following Observations on the nature of language—the noblest instrument at the
