PREFATORY NOTE

In the year 1903, I published "A Liberal Education and a Liberal Faith," a volume of Baccalaureate addresses given from 1891 to that time. The present volume includes the addresses given between 1903 and 1918.

To the students with whom I have lived and worked and played these many years, and who first heard these addresses at their Commencement, I dedicate this new volume. Without, as well as within, college walls, may they find that their highest aspirations are, through daily experience, becoming solid convictions.
