PREFACE.

The present volume, Vol. XXXII, contains the Pipe Roll for the twenty-ninth year of the reign of King Henry II., collated with the Chancellor's Roll for the same year, preceded by an introduction contributed by Mr. Round, for which as well as for those in former volumes, the Committee here expresses its hearty thanks to Mr. Round.

It is issued in return for the subscriptions paid for the year ending on 1st June, 1911.

The Roll is printed, as resolved by the General Meeting on 16th June, 1903, in extenso, instead of in Record type, as in previous volumes.

The rules drawn up by the Committee on 25th August, 1903, for the transcriber, are as follows :—

Rules of Copying.

1. The Latin to be extended, with the exceptions hereafter noted.
2. I and J, U and V, to be written according to sound in ordinary words: to be copied as in the MS. in names of persons and places.
3. Figures to be in Roman numerals, as in the Roll, with a full stop before and after. L. s. d. to be printed in italic, e.g. .vj. l. .xiiij. s. et .iiij. d.
4. Christian names to be extended when there is no doubt; or when the evidence of the Roll itself or of one nearly the same date is available. Otherwise, copy the MS. and add an apostrophe.
5. F, not ph, in names like Radulfus.
6. Place-names and surnames in Latin to be extended. In English, not to be extended, with a final '.
7. Capitals to be used for proper names; for institutions, such as Cancellaria, Scaccarium, when the mention is of sufficient importance to be indexed; for titles such as Rex, Archiepiscopus, Cancellarius, Comes, when alone, that is, not followed by a name, and when the mention will be indexed.
8. Erasures, cancellations, corrections, and interlineations, to be mentioned in footnotes.

9. Different readings in the Chancellor's Roll only to be noted when important, or when giving a name in full, which is abbreviated in the Pipe Roll.

10. Reddit Compotum, to be copied redd. comp.

In the preface to volume .XXIX. p. viij. there are a few remarks about the extension of contracted words. In connection with them the following instances in the present volume are worth noting for the sake of explaining apparent inconsistencies. It is there stated that no word occurs which must needs be read conclamentum. In the present volume the word occurs several times.<sup>1</sup> In justification of what is said about the words Murdr' concl', the latter word is extended conclato on this Pipe Roll once.<sup>2</sup> Justicia has hitherto been almost invariably used as meaning justiciary, but justiciarius is the more usual word in this volume,<sup>3</sup> though justicia is found as well.<sup>4</sup> The words in the same phrase sometimes vary. For instance, the last word of pro militibus quos non recognovit<sup>5</sup> is occasionally written recognoscit,<sup>6</sup> though usually it might be extended either way, being merely recogn'. Grammar varies. On the same page we find habendis tenementis and ducendi bladum.<sup>7</sup>
